

GERSHOM WILLIAMS 1886-1980

Gershom Williams was an agricultural labourer, who lived in and around Kemsing all his life. He wrote

“There used to be a loop line from Kemsing to Sevenoaks, it was altered in the late 1890s. After the loop had gone you had to travel to Sevenoaks via Otford. I wrote a little poem about the railway.....”

If you want to travel to the Bat and Ball

To do a little job or pay a call

You have to take a ticket

And when they come and nick it

Be Otford you must go or not at all.
